

CENTER FOR THE STUDY OF THE AMERICAN CONSTITUTION

csac.history.wisc.edu > Document Collections > Popular Culture and Ratification >
American Newspapers during Ratification > Georgia

Georgia Newspapers during Ratification

Two weekly newspapers were published in Georgia during 1787. They were The Georgia State Gazette or Independent Register published in Augusta by John E. Smith, the state printer, and The Gazette of the State of Georgia published in Savannah by James Johnston, a former Loyalist. Although both publishers appear to have been nonpartisan, most newspaper items they published supported the ratification of the Constitution.

CITE AS: John P. Kaminski et al., eds., The Documentary History of the Ratification of the Constitution, Vol. III: Delaware, New Jersey, Georgia, and Connecticut (Madison, Wis.: Wisconsin Historical Society Press, 1978), 212.