South Carolina Recommendatory Amendments 23 May 1788 (excerpt)

. . . And Whereas it is essential to the preservation of the rights reserved to the several states, and the freedom of the people under the operations of a General government that the right of prescribing the manner time and places of holding the Elections to the Federal Legislature, should be for ever inseparably annexed to the sovereignty of the several States. This convention doth declare that the same ought to remain to all posterity a perpetual and fundamental right in the local, exclusive of the interference of the General Government except in cases where the Legislatures of the States, shall refuse or neglect to perform and fulfil the same according to the tenor of the said Constitution. —

This Convention doth also declare that no Section or paragraph of the said Constitution warrants a Construction that the states do not retain every power not expressly relinquished by them and vested in the General Government of the Union. —

Resolved that the general Government of the United States ought never to impose direct taxes, but where the monies arising from the duties, imposts and excise are insufficient for the public exigencies nor then until Congress shall have made a requisition upon the states to assess levy and pay their respective proportions of such requisitions and in case any State shall neglect or refuse to pay its proportion pursuant to such requisition then Congress may assess and levy such state's proportion together with Interest thereon at the rate of Six per centum per annum from the time of payment prescribed by such requisition. —

Resolved that the third Section of the Sixth Article ought to be amended by inserting the word "other" between the words "no" and "religious"

Resolved that it be a standing instruction to all such delegates as may hereafter be elected to represent this State in the general Government to exert their utmost abilities and influence to effect an alteration of the Constitution conformably to the foregoing Resolutions. —

Done in Convention the twenty third day of May in the Year of our Lord one thousand Seven hundred and eighty eight and of the Independence of the United States of America the twelfth —
